Congressman O'Ferrall to De'iver a Memorial Address-Ground Broken for a New Church-Schools of Bluefish.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Nonrolk, April 15 .- The primary election for the nomination of Democratic candidates will be held in Norfolk on the 23d instant. dates will be head in reconstruction of the 200 dataset. Only a city treasurer is to be elected in May, this being the off year in Norfolk. The Democratic primary in Portsmouth will probably be held on the 5th of May. All the city officers and seven-feen councilmen are to be nominated, and the town is fairly alive with hustling candidates.

A letter was received from Congressman Charles T. O'Terrall yesterday notifying Stonewall Camp. Confederate Voterans, that he will be in Portsmouth on time on Memorial-day, May 122d, to deliver the memorial address.

Vice-Grand-Regent C. W. Harwood, of Alexandria, was among the guests present at the reception tendered Grand-Regent Walter F. Irrine last night.

MORE PAVORABLE. The condition of Mr. Alexander Lockhart, dangerously hurt by being thrown from his horse, was considered more favorable to-day.
Father Smith, paster of St. Ignatina church, Raitfmore, and Major S. M. Finley, of Raleigh, Superintendent of Public Instruction of North Carolina, are in the city.
Ground was broken yesterday for the new Mc-Rendree Methodist Episcopal church, corner of Clay and Claiborne avenues.

Mrs. A. J. W. Hobson, of Richmond, State secretary of the Virginia Hamabai Society, ad-dressed the Woman's Christian Association at the Boys Home last evening. Congressman John E. Reyburn and a party of Philadelphians arrived here to-day en reuts to Roanoke Island and Nag's Head for a week's sport.

Immense schools of bluefish are reported on the Currituck coast. MEETINGS CLOSED.

Rev. J. R. Harrison, the Baptist evangelist, closes his meetings in Portsmouth to-night and leaves to-morrow for his home in Southwest Virginia. His meetings were attended with excelent results and greatly benefited the Fourth-Street Baptist church. The old war steamer Brooklyn, now at the navy-yard, is to be towed to Boston, having been purchased by partice in that city.

Car No. 1 of the Portsmouth street-tallway was run into and wrecked last night by a train of the Atlantic and Danville road. Fortunately no one was in the oar at the time.

The public echools of Portsmouth will celebrate the 284th anniversary of the landing of the English colonists at Jamestown on the 13th of May. A number of ministers of Norfolk are ill just now.

A CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

Masonic Ceremonies at the "Corner-Stone" on Jones's Point-Brick-Plant Burned. errespondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
ALEIANDEIA, April 15.—It is a hundred years ago to-day since Hon. Daniel Carroll and Hon. David Stewart fixed on Jones's Point, tust below this city, the corner-stone of the boundary-line which for fifty-six years separated this town and county from its natural mother, the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Mayor and commonality and the Freemasons of this city went together from the cold town-house at the Market Square to Mr. Wise's hotel, where they dined with the commissioners.

AN IMMOVALEM MONIMENT.

AN IMMOVABLE MONUMENT.

The last toast of the dinner was the following:

"May the stone which we are about to place in the ground remain an immovable monument of the wisdom and unanimity of North America."
These bodies, headed by the town sergeant, marched then to Jones's Peint, where the stone was set with Masonic ceremonies. The master of Alexandria Lodge, Dr. Dick, delivered the Masonic address. Rev. James Muir preached a sermon on the occasion. AN IMMOVABLE MONUMENT.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. Pire this morning totally destroyed the large brickmaking-plant of the Alexandria Brick Com-pany, on Hunting creek, just south of this city. The flames-enarted in one of the brick-kilns, and owing to a strong southwest breeze, soon the kilns, sill the sheds, and containing the brick-making machinery, and the drying-house, the whole works was in flames and were burned to the ground.

ASSASSINATION IN DICKENSON.

Kentucky Desperado Kills a Pall-

County Alliance Ticket. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

CINTWOOD, Va., April 13.—A sad occurrence took place on Sandy Ridge, this county, a short time since. The affair, as related to your correspondent, is substantially as follows: Asron Gheon and — Caudill atias John Brown, from Kentucky, had a difficulty on Wednesday, which resulted in a fisticult, in which Gheon was victor. This so incensed Caudill that he swore he would kill Gitson before three days. On the following day there was a wedding in the neighborhood, to which these antagonists were invited. "All work merry as a marriage-bell"; liquors flowed freely, and many were under its influence when night came on.

COLD AND STIFF.

COLD AND STIFF. Shortly after dark a pistol-shot was fired near the house, but little stiention was paid to the matter by those unconcerned till morning, when the body of Gibson was found lying on the ground the body of Gibson was found lying on the ground oold and stiff, with a builet-hole under his fert arm in the region of the heart, and two slight gashes cut in his forehead. Caudill was still in the neighborhood, and was promptly arrested upon suspicion. The ball was extracted from the body and proved the same size of those in Caudill's pistol. After a preliminary hearing he was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

OF THE WORST TYPE.

He is a desperado of the worst Kentucky type. Other parties are thought to have been con-cerned in the affair, and several other arrests will probably be made soon.

AN ALLIANCE TICKET.

Though it has been previously stated in this correspondence that the Farmers' Alliance would not nominate any ticket for the county offices, yet upon assembling in conference a short time ago, they did nominate a full ticket as follows: For Sheriff, Wib Haynes; Communwealth's Attorney, J. S. Ross; Treasurer, James Colley; Commissioners of Revenue—Western district, Solomon Hibbitt; Eastern district, L. D. Owens. I hear that some diseastisfaction prevailed in the conventien—that several disappointed aspirants went away in a very bad humor, though they will probably become reconciled and work harmoniously for their success. They will be strongly opposed by elements of both political parties. COMPLAINING.

Our farmers are complaining loudly of the disagrecable weather. Their farm-work is standing still, and nothing can be done. The snow has been nearly a foot deep for several days past, but there is a prospect of it soon meiting how.

A DAMAGE SUIT DECIDED.

The Plaintiff Gets $3,750 from the Late Richmond and Alleghany R. R. Co. (Correspondence of the Richmend Dispatch.)
Scottsville, Xa., April 15.—The case of
B. J. Farrar and others vs. the Richmond and Alleghamy Railway Company was decided in the Fluvanna Circuit Court on the 14th insiant in favor of the plaintifis, giving them damages in the sum of $3,750.

The circumstances of the case were as follows:
On the evening of September 18, 1889, Benjamin Joseph Farrar, son of Mr. B. J. Farrar, of Nashville, Tenn., purchased a ticket for Middleton Mills at the company's office in Richmond.
For some reason the train was delayed and arrived at Middleton at about 8 o'clock and did not stop at the station, but came to a halt about three fourths of a mile above. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

GOT OFF.

It was here that Joseph Farrar, a boy only eleven years old, got off and was informed by the conductor that the station was about 200 yards back down the track. The boy started out for the station, which he in all probability would have reached in safety had he not fallen on a treatle just before he got to the station.

It was dark, and he, being unfamiliar with the road at that point, was badly hurt by the fall, and while struggling to release himself from the treatle he heard the sound of a whistle, as he thought, of an approaching train.

**NEWOOD SHOOCS.**

NERVOUS SHOCK. This caused a nervous shock, from which he has not as yet entirely recovered. He managed, however, to reach the station, where friends were swaiting to meet him. Suit was instituted by plaintiff for $10,000, and a verdict as above rendered being the result.

Mr. J. A. Carter, of your city, is in town; also r. O. D. Watson, of St. Louis, and Colonel W. . Gordon, of Hichmond. Our Mayor, J. S. rady, is much better and getting about.

Operations Delayed.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] DIANA MILLS, Va., April 18 .- A o man naned Fountain was drowned Saturday evening a few miles below this place on State river. The river was rising rapidly, when he attempted to cross in a cance, which was struck by a log and sunk. His body had not been found up to last reports.

Two colored persons were buried in this neighborhood on yeaterday (Sunday).

LANG OVERFLOWED.

We have had an unusual amount of rainy satisf, and on Saturday evening last we had storm of thunder, lightning, hall, and rain that the base must sudden and severe of any during Summer. Our farming interests have been interrupted by the rainy weather and we are suffering with: our neighbors generally throughout the country. Some few have managed to, get their oats sowed and plant-beds prepared, but most of our people are very much behind in both. The outlook is discouraging, but our people are doing what they can and hoping for more favorable weather. We are thankful that there are no serious cases of sickness amongst us.

UNIVERSITY FIELD-SPORTS DAY.

One Record Broken-The Various Contests and the Places Gained.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)
UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, April 13.—Yesterday was a holiday at the University. For the first time in its history it celebrated the birthday of its noble founder, whose home overlooks the University grounds. Mr. Jefferson has been recorded as opposed to holidays, and never before have the University authorities seen fit to break over the line of conduct laid down by him. The day has been given up entirely to the field-sports. A more beautiful day could not have been found, and all day long the athletic grounds were covered with happy spectators. It was thought by many that the records in a good many of the trials would be broken, but the event shows only one break. The contests began at 11 cclock, and the first trial was throwing the baseball. There were quite a number of entries. The winner was Mr. John J.
